

PUBLISHED DAILY AND TRI-WEEKLY BY EDGAR SNOWDEN.

ALEXANDRIA:

THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 30, 1859.

A letter from Philadelphia, in the New York Herald, professes to give the true interpretation of the late popular sovereignty manifesto of Mr. Douglas, in reference to the Charleston Convention:—

"It is not a split in the party camp at Charleston, nor an independent movement in the North like that of Van Buren in 1848. On the contrary, Mr. Douglas expects heartily to co-operate with the South in behalf of the Charleston nomination. Impressed with the conviction that his squatter sovereignty platform would inevitably defeat his nomination at Charleston, his late manifesto may be considered as a sort of declaration in advance. He and his partisans, however, will have a voice in the Convention, and he believes that they will have power, against all adverse combinations, to secure the nomination of Gov. Wise. What then? Why, then, from the strong Southern position assumed by Gov. Wise on the subject of slavery in the Territories, the calculation of Mr. Douglas is that the Democracy will be so soundly thrashed in 1860, as to be compelled to fall back upon Mr. Douglas in 1864. Thus the whole meaning of this Douglas manifesto is a declaration, on his part, of the Charleston nomination, in favor of Gov. Wise, with the expectation of a Democratic defeat in 1860, which in 1864 will compel the party to fall back upon Douglas."

We doubt the correctness of this interpretation, and believe that Mr. Douglas wishes, and intends to be, if he can, a candidate for the Presidency in 1860 himself—and that he would be willing to oppose Gov. Wise, or any body else, to accomplish his purpose. He, probably, does not wish to "wait for the wagon" any longer.

Speaking of the heavy importations of foreign goods, of all kinds, the Baltimore Exchange says:—"We have imported already this season double the amount of foreign dry goods than we did during the corresponding period of last year, and one-third in excess of the import of 1857, and we are admonished that if our rate of imports continues the same for the remainder of the year, 'we shall count upon hundred and twenty millions of dollars for dry goods received through the port of New York alone.' If our recuperation from previous losses were perfect, this increase upon the imports of 1857, heavy as those were, might be justified by the addition which has been made to the population of the country during the past two years; but the fact is that the West have recovered from the straits into which they were thrown, first by their inordinate speculation in wild lands, and subsequently by a failure of the crops, it is manifestly unwise for our merchants to extend so heavily their purchases in foreign markets."

The "Democrats" and the "Republicans" are already hard at work upon the subject of who is to be the next Speaker of the House of Representatives. From the peculiar complexion of the next House, so far as it can be understood from the elections already had, it seems that the conflict may be as close and exciting as that which resulted in the election of Mr. Banks. Upon the Republican side, the names of Mr. Grow, of Pennsylvania, Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, and Mr. Blair, of Missouri, are named. Upon the Democratic side, the principal men named are Mr. Boeck, of Virginia, and Mr. John Cochrane, of New York.

General Gyulai has transmitted his official account of the battle of Magenta, and a poor apology it is for his defeat and the terrible sacrifice of life. The Vienna correspondent of the London News several weeks ago said that Gyulai was remarkable for nothing, except his highly-polished patent leather boots, and waxed moustache. It is very certain, however, that the Emperor of Austria had great confidence in him—and that up to his defeat, many generally thought there was more about him than "boots and moustache." And greater generals than Gyulai have lost great battles.

Metternich, the old Austrian Minister, so famous in the time of the first Napoleon, dies just as the new Napoleon is knocking to pieces all the plans and policy which he spent the best days of his life in forming. People have almost forgotten that in the disturbances of 1848 he fled to England, remaining there until 1851, and returning only when the reaction had placed the royalties of Europe in the fullest possession of power. His "fittings" are now done—he will make no more.

The practice of taking any kind of bail for criminals arrested for outrages and disorders, is justly and strongly commented on in the Baltimore Patriot. Magistrates, in times like these, should always see that the bail is good and sufficient beyond a doubt—so that the penalty can be enforced. These disturbers of the peace ought to have no loop holes for escape.

It is admitted now, we understand, that there are the finest crops of Wheat, Rye, and Oats, in Virginia, generally, this year, that have been seen for several years past.—The prospect for Corn, also, at this time, is good—but, of course much will depend upon the weather in July and August.

It has been well said, that whilst in Europe, there is the "harvest of death," here with us, we have the "harvest of peace and abundance." How grateful we should be to the Giver of all Good!

A man in Willington, Conn., murdered his young wife, some weeks ago. The body of the murdered woman has just been found, and the murderer arrested.

A death from hydrophobia, the second this year, has occurred in the Hospital, at Boston.

News of the Day.

"To show the very age and body of the times."

From the States in which the wheat harvest has commenced, the accounts are favorable. In Maryland and Virginia the farmers are cutting their wheat, and there is a good prospect of a fine crop. In Kentucky and Tennessee the yield of grain will be large, and the quality is unsurpassed. Alabama, North Carolina, and Texas report favorably. In Southern Illinois harvesting is going on this week in good earnest, and we are pleased to learn that the yield is very heavy—no rust.

The Navy Department has received despatches from Flag-Officer Long, of the Pacific squadron, dated at Callao on the 27th ult. All was quiet there, and information from Valparaiso announced that the authority of the existing government was fully re-established in Chili, and order once more restored in that country. The repairs of the Saracene were progressing, and arrangements were being made for a thorough caulking of the Merrimack.

The Secretary of the Navy has directed that double rations shall not hereafter be allowed to marine officers commanding guards of the receiving ships at Boston, New York, and Norfolk; nor to the marine officer in command of the guard at the navy-yard gate in the city of Washington, D. C. Marines serving on board vessels of war shall not be diverted from their appropriate duties, or called upon to coal ship or work as mechanics, except in cases of emergency.

We learn from the Montgomery County (Pa.) papers that Reuben Derr, a poor man who has driven a stage for a living for some time past, has, by the death of a grandfather in the East Indies, fallen heir to a very large fortune. It is said that a portion of the borough of Bethlehem is built on lands belonging to the old man, which will now be claimed by the seven heirs to his estate.

The Whigs of Kentucky are rallying as one man, to the support of the Hon. Josh. F. Bell, the Whig candidate for Governor. Those who had given up every thing in despair—who believed the Whig party dead and buried, and who have been active lately with the Democracy, or remained neutral, are now welcoming the appearance of their old banner in the field.

A young girl, a daughter of Mr. Joseph Munchel, of York, Pa., aged about twelve years, died of lockjaw, on Friday last. A few days previous to her death she accidentally trampled upon a small nail, which penetrated the foot, and in a very short time the pain became so intense that lockjaw was brought on, from the effects of which she died.

Eliza Thomas, a servant girl, about 18 years old, in the service of Miss Warren, of Le Roy, N. Y., having been convicted of theft and pardoned on condition that she should sin no more, rewarded her employer who had thus endeavored to save her from the consequences of her crime, by poisoning the tea which she supposed her mistress would drink for breakfast.

Although snow is a matter of course in mid-winter, yet the papers hardly ever fail to announce the occurrence. When it comes on the 21st of June, the longest day in the year, as it did on Tuesday last, at Hamilton, Canada West, it may well be deemed worthy of a paragraph.

It appears that Judge Douglas was on board the night train of cars which met with an accident on Sunday night, ten miles east of Baltimore. The engineer was killed, and the fireman dangerously scalded, but none of the passengers were hurt. The engine was thrown off by a horse suddenly coming out of the woods.

A letter from New York says:—"Our 'fashionable churches' are closing for the season, and the Miss Flora McMillens who 'worship' in them during cool and pleasant weather will soon be off on their usual summer jollifications and flirtations at the different watering-places."

James A. Cowardin has associated with him in the publication of the Richmond Dispatch, John D. Hammersley, esq. The Dispatch needs no commendation at the hands of any one. It speaks for itself, and is recognized as one of the best dailies in the South.

Dr. Doy, of Kansas, charged with running off negroes, belonging to citizens of Missouri, has been found guilty. Judgment was suspended in order that an appeal may be taken to the Supreme Court, which sits in a few weeks at Jefferson City.

On the recent Derby day there were only four persons in attendance at the British House of Lords, consisting of two ladies in the gallery, Lord Beauchamp, and Lord Radnor, the latter sitting on the opposition benches.

Dealers in fireworks cannot be too careful how they expose their inflammable commodities. Hardly a "Fourth" passes without several dreadful accidents happening that might be avoided with proper care.

It is stated that the insanity of Lewis C. Levin, formerly representative from the First District of Pennsylvania, is supposed to have been brought about by the immoderate use of opium.

The Light-house Board has received a report from the inspector of the first light-house district, of the loss by wreck, on the 16th instant, of the ship London, of the master, from Philadelphia, bound to St. John's, N. B.—This ship was wrecked on Cross island, Maine, near the light-house on Little river, in a dense fog, at 4 1/2 o'clock, a. m. The wind was blowing from the southwest at the time. The crew consisted of the master, first and second mates, steward, and fourteen men, of whom the master, first mate, and 13 men were drowned. The wreck occurred after daylight, and was not seen at the time from the light-house.

Among the chaplains who have just been appointed to the army in Italy is the Rev. Father Parolere, who distinguished himself in the Crimea. In one action in which he was by the side of Gen. Canrobert, his horse was killed under him. "That, Reverend Sir," said the General, "is an accident without remedy. I cannot get you another horse; so, au revoir." But Father Parolere thought it his duty to be present in the combat, and seeing a cannon approach, he jumped astride it, and was conveyed in that manner into the midst of the action, where he assisted the wounded and administered religious consolation to the dying.

The family of Mr. Fikes, residing near Centreville, Cumberland County, Pa., have been suffering for some time past from the effects of lead poisoning. It appears that they were in the habit of using freely preserved put up in the common lead-glazed earthenware jars, and that the preservatives, having absorbed large quantities of the poison. Several of the family are still in a precarious condition. This should serve as a warning to families who at this season are preparing to put up fruit.

The embarrassments of the Post Office Department, it is stated, will be felt most seriously after the 1st of July, when the present fiscal year closes. Thus far the small contractors, not exceeding $50, have been paid, and the clerks in the post office have been treated by the Government. No appropriations having been made, both classes will be entirely cut off, though commissions wherever to pay the latter will accumulate. Serious inconvenience is expected, as nearly six months must elapse without relief.

A report comes from Nicaragua that Mons. Bely had died of fever, but it needs confirmation. In our latest advices, however, it was stated that Mons. Bely was about to withdraw his corps of surveyors on account of the unhealthiness of the season. Fevers were prevalent; several of the company had fallen victims.

The Cincinnati Israelite, whose editor, Dr. Wise, is a German, is indignant at the German sympathy for Austria. He says:—"But, as a German, we can sympathize only with Italy and France in this struggle, as Kosuth, Vogt, Klapka, Garibaldi, and even the Democrats of Vienna do."

At a marriage ceremony in New Bedford on Saturday last, the bride stated that her age was about twelve years, and the bridegroom twenty-five. The parties are of Portuguese extraction, and the girl married not from any wish of her own but at the solicitation of her mother. This is a progressive age.

Forgot his Own Name.

A resident of Columbia township, who returns a considerable sum upon the tax duplicate, recently forgot his own name! He was looking for a letter, and called almost daily at the post office, and inquired for a certain name. The postmaster several times informed him that he had a letter with the superscription of his own name, except that there was a middle name, spelled in full. The applicant declined to receive the epistle, as it must be for some one else, but said he did not know such a man in the town. One day, after a month had passed, he told his wife there was such a letter, and wondered who it could be for, and why the owner never called for it! After a good laugh at her liege, she convinced him that the name on the letter was his own! He had forgotten his middle cognomen, but ventured to claim the letter, and found that it was the very document that he had been looking for so long—Cincinnati Commercial.

Trials of a Blomper.

A Dress Reform Convention in session at Auburn last week, was well attended. Mrs. Joy, of Syracuse, made a speech on the occasion. Mrs. Choate, of Syracuse, related with evident embarrassment, the many trials and tribulations she passed through in adopting the dress of the reformers. Her friends, to the number of thirty or more, left her, and she felt alone in the world. When she passed through the streets of Syracuse, her native place, no gentleman would touch her, but she had to go on alone, and she was not allowed to wear a hat or gloves, and she was not allowed to
